

ConductAreas of Responsibility1. Board of Education

The Board of Education holds the certificated personnel responsible for the proper conduct and control of pupils while legally under the supervision and jurisdiction of the school.

2. Principal

The principal may implement necessary procedures and rules and regulations to render effective the policies of the Board of Education relating to standards of student behavior. The principal may involve representatives of all areas of school personnel, pupils, parents, and citizens of the community.

3. Teachers

Teachers shall be responsible for the instruction of pupils in rules and regulations of proper conduct, as well as be responsible for proper and adequate control of pupils. The responsibility and authority of any teacher extends to all pupils of the school district under the assigned supervision of the teacher and to other pupils so situated with respect to the teacher as to be subject to the teacher's control.

4. Parents

Parents shall be expected to cooperate with school authorities regarding the behavior of their children. Parents shall be held responsible for the willful misbehavior of their children.

Pupil Behavior

Pupils shall be properly instructed in rules and regulations of acceptable conduct; they shall then be responsible for understanding and complying with the standards of behavior described therein. Any pupil who fails to comply with these laws and rules concerning pupil behavior is liable to suspension, exclusion, or expulsion.

APPROVED BY THE BOARD OF EDUCATION ON JUNE 22, 1987.
