

School Placement

Commencing with the 2001-2002 school year, the Board of Education reserves the right to place all new enrollees in schools that can best accommodate additional students. Every effort will be made to retain students in neighborhood schools and to maintain racial and numerical balance.