

Curriculum at a Glance

Child Development I

Grade 9-12

Unit Description	Content/Skills/Objectives
Unit 1: Exploring Careers in Childcare	Chapter 23: Careers Working with Children Learning Objective(s): Students will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none">● explain why career planning could lead to greater career satisfaction.● evaluate their personal skills, talents, and abilities to determine what types of career paths might be suitable.● investigate possible career options that match their interests and determine a course of action or planning. Content/Topics: Critical content that students must know: 1.0: Understand the interaction of multiple life roles with the responsibilities of family, work, and community. 2.0: Evaluate management practices related to human, economic, and environmental resources. 6.0: Demonstrate the integration of knowledge, skills, and practices required for careers in education and family-community services. 9.0: Analyze child growth and development and evaluate the impact of parenting roles and responsibilities on individuals and families. 10.0: Demonstrate the integration of knowledge, skills, and practices required for careers in early childhood, education, and services.
Unit 2: Studying Children	Chapter 1: Learn About Children Chapter 2: Responsibilities of Parenting Chapter 3: Building Strong Families Learning Objective(s): Students will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none">● explain how effective parenting impacts society.● discuss the lifelong responsibilities that parenting requires.

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● explain how planning for parenthood impacts the future of a couple’s children. ● discuss the importance of learning about child development for caregivers. ● explain the necessary skills required to be an effective parent. ● identify some common challenges that teen parents might face. ● compare the difference between a pregnancy that is planned by a mature couple with that of a teen pregnancy. Content/Topics: Critical content that students must know: 1.0: Understand the interaction of multiple life roles with the responsibilities of family, work, and community. 2.0: Evaluate management practices related to human, economic, and environmental resources. 5.0: Examine the impact of society on individuals and families across the life span. 9.0: Analyze human growth and development and evaluate the impact of parenting roles and responsibilities on individuals, families, and global societies.
Unit 3: Pregnancy and Childbirth	Chapter 4: Prenatal Development Chapter 5: Preparing for Birth Chapter 6: Baby’s Arrival Learning Objective(s) - Students will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● develop an understanding of the value and seriousness of parental planning. ● explain how a pregnant woman’s can impact her developing baby. ● compare the differences between birthing methods and prepared childbirth Content/Topics – Critical content that students must know. 1.0: Understand the interaction of multiple life roles with the responsibilities of family, work, and community. 2.0: Evaluate management practices related to human, economic, and environmental resources. 5.0: Examine the impact of society on individuals and families across the life span. 9.0: Analyze child growth and development and evaluate the impact of parenting roles and responsibilities on individuals and families.

Unit 4: Principles of Infant Development	Chapter 7: Physical Development of Infants Chapter 8: Emotional and Social Development Chapter 9 Intellectual Development of Infants Learning Objective(s) - Students will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● explain effective ways to support the development of a child. ● review the initial behaviors of a newborn. ● evaluate the importance of understanding the care that is essential for the healthy development of a newborn. ● explain proactive healthcare for an infant. ● identify important growth periods in children’s lives. Content/Topics – Critical content that students must know. 1.0: Understand the interaction of multiple life roles with the responsibilities of family, work, and community. 2.0: Evaluate management practices related to human, economic, and environmental resources. 5.0: Examine the impact of society on individuals and families across the life span. 9.0: Analyze child growth and development and evaluate the impact of parenting roles and responsibilities on individuals and families.