Dear Stratford High School Community,

As we welcome students back from Holiday Break, we would like to share information with you regarding Mid-Terms which are scheduled to take place from Tuesday, January 22 until Friday, January 25th.

Please note that we will not be holding early dismissal days, but will instead utilize a full day schedule with longer periods to allow for students to demonstrate their learning through project or performance-based assessments. This initiative which began last year gives students an opportunity to show their learning in a variety of ways. Our hope is that this continued work will help lay the foundation for our district's shift towards Mastery-Based Learning.

- Study halls and resource periods are assigned study opportunities for students, and students are expected to be in attendance on each of the assessment days.

- Excused absences will be determined by a student's administrator, and make up privileges must be approved by the student's administrator.
- In the event of a delayed opening on one of the four assessment days, we will follow the bell schedule listed below (times and periods).
- In the event of a full-day cancellation, the assessment schedule will be pushed forward one day and the assessment window extended to Monday, January 28th.
  - NOTE: If there is any change to the daily schedule in the days leading up to Mid-Term week, the Mid-Term schedule will not change.
